mystery!

double

There was an air raid last night. And now we've a real mystery to solve... What on Earth happened?

The door is open. The keys are inside.

There's a window broken and glass all over the floor.

Something's happened at number 37.

Liza and Michael are gone!

The wireless is on and there's food on the table.

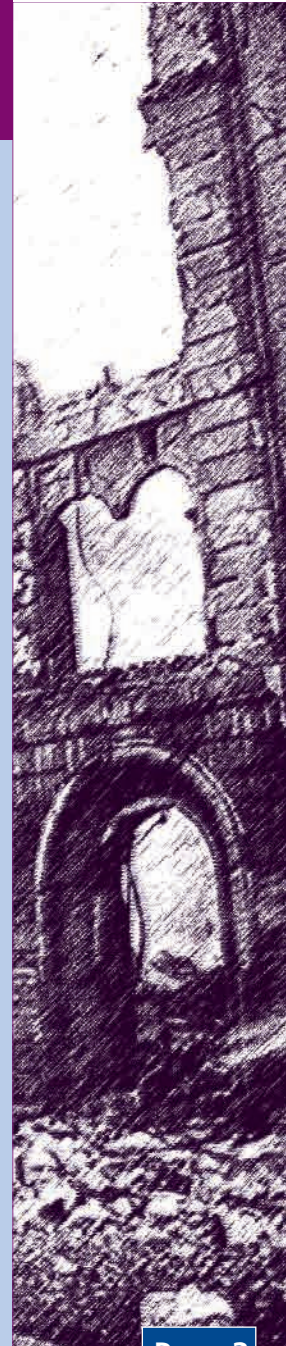

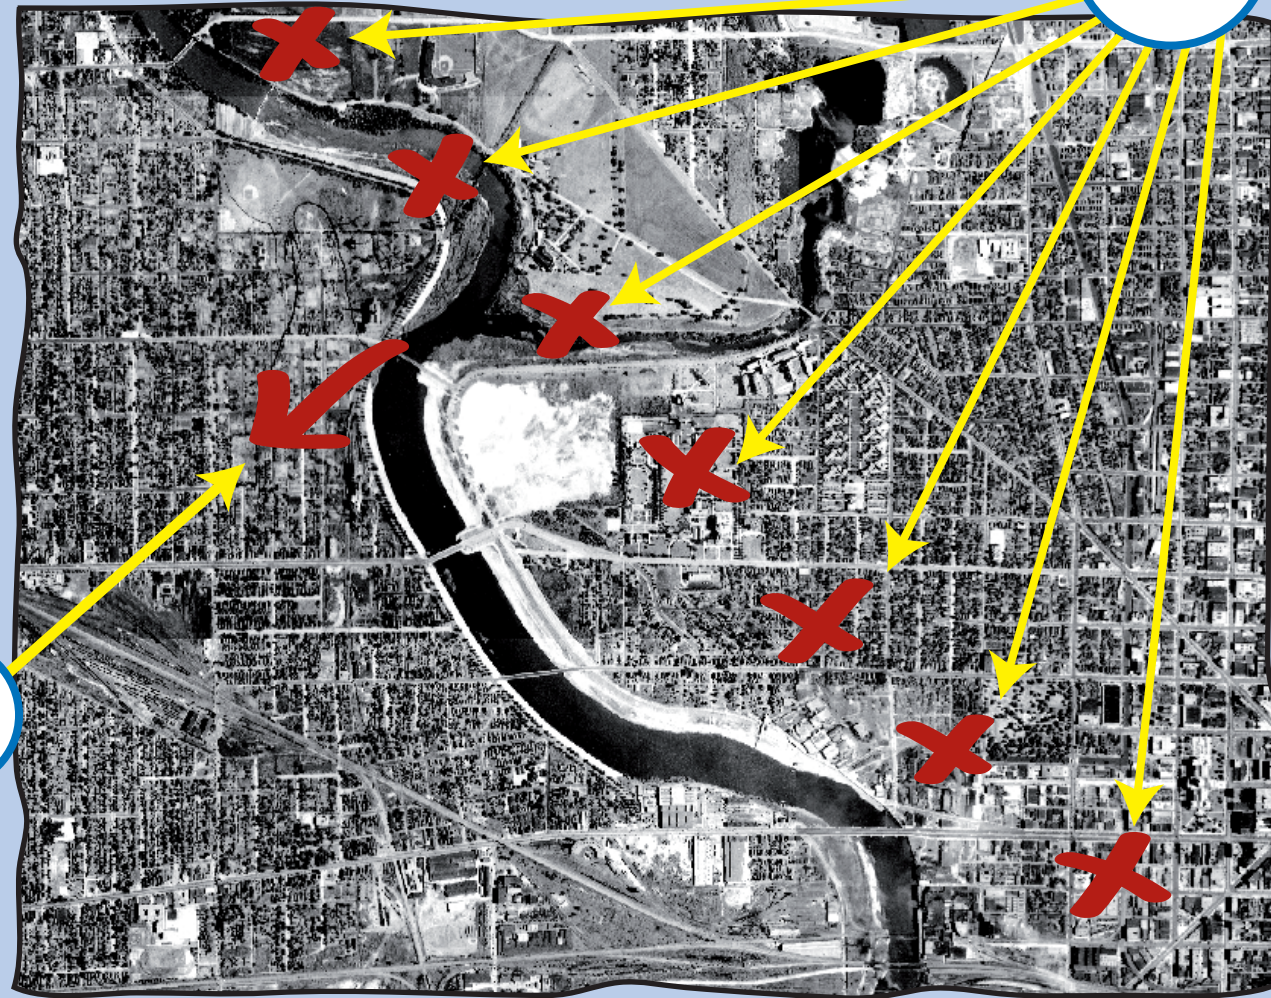

The floor is wet and there's a funny smell. We saw a piece of burnt cloth, too.

The next day...

Look. I've got a map. I marked the houses damaged in the air raid. What does it tell us about number 37?

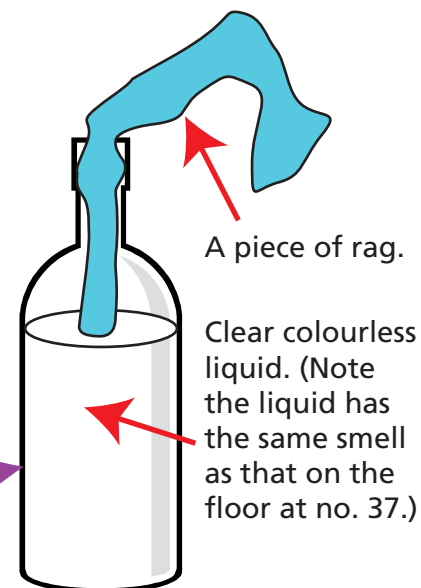

More evidence...

We found pieces of a broken bottle and a liquid on the floor. How could the liquid have splattered like this?

We also found this outside Number 37. What is it?

A piece of rag.

Clear colourless liquid. (Note the liquid has the same smell as that on the floor at no. 37.)

Liquid evidence...

We got a scientist to test the liquid. Here is the report.

The scientist gave us a reference table...Which liquid was at number 37?
Can we do another test to check this?
There's still a bit of liquid left.

Family evidence...

We found these in the damaged room, too. What might they mean?

Liebe Lisa,

Vor kurzer Zeit habe ich angefangen Deutsch zu lernen und ich dachte es wäre keine so schlechte Idee deutschsprachige Brieffreunde zu haben, damit ich die Sprache üben und zugleich neue Freunde finden kann.

In meiner Freizeit höre ich gerne Musik, gucke Filme, Dokumentationen, ich reise gerne, lerne neue Leute kennen und vieles mehr. Überdies finde ich die Sprache schön.

Wie du siehst, ich kann schon etwas auf Deutsch schreiben, aber es ist immer noch verbesserungsbedürftig, weil mein Wortschatz noch begrenzt ist und ich häufig auf das Wörterbuch angewiesen bin.

Ich hoffe auf deine baldige Antwort. Erzähle doch etwas über dich und deine Vorlieben. Hoffentlich kannst du mir dabei helfen mein Deutsch zu verbessern. Ich glaube das war es.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen.

FAMILY ATTACKED AFTER AIR RAID

In London, a family from Europe were attacked in their home.

Windows were broken and the father was beaten up. The mother said, "We came to Britain before the war to escape from the Nazis but the mob must have thought we were Nazi supporters or even spies. Now we are frightened that the Government may put us all into an internment camp for undesirable aliens."

Now we need a report.
